Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe!

Dear People of God, we celebrate the Thirty-Fourth or Last Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B. On this Sunday of the Liturgical Year, we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King. Instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925, to combat the growing secularism and atheism of his time, it is one of the so-called “idea feasts” that do not celebrate an event in the life of Jesus but some aspect of His identity. In it, we recognise and honour Christ as Ruler of all. The original feast of Christ the King is the Ascension, when the Church celebrates the Exalted Christ, crowned with glory at the right hand of God the Father. As the liturgical year comes to a close, we reflect on the shape of Christ’s Kingship and Kingdom. The Church proclaims and celebrates Christ the Universal King all over the world. He did not claim to be just the King of the Jews. His kingdom is not to be an exclusive one. He is King of all who are on the side of truth and listen to His voice.

The readings help us to understand the meaning of the feast of Christ the King. We see Jesus before Pilate who questions Him about His identity and the accusation that He is “King of the Jews”. Jesus explains His Kingship. It is different from that of kings of this world. Being the faithful witness, the first-born of the dead, and the ruler of kings on earth, Jesus loves us and sets us free from our sins by His blood, and makes us a kingdom and priests to His God and Father: to Him be glory and power forever and ever. The first reading from Daniel presents Jesus Christ as the “Son of Man” presented before the Ancient of Days. He is given dominion, glory and kingdom so that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion which shall not pass away, and never destroyed. His are majesty and splendour, and His Kingdom is everlasting, a kingdom of cosmic dimensions. In the Gospel, Christ Himself offers us some indications of His Kingship. Admitting that He is King, He specifies that His “Kingship is not of this world” and is not from the world though it influences this world. His Kingship is a witness to the truth that can transform people’s lives if only they would listen and be guided by it: for this, He was born, and for this He came into the world, to bear witness to the truth. All who are of the truth hear Christ’s voice.

The kingdom of Jesus is fundamentally a witness to the truth. Therefore, it is opposed to falsehood and oppression. Such a kingdom cannot be set up by force. Everyone is called to listen to the voice of truth and to decide freely on which side of it to stand. Such a kingdom is eternal in time, universal in scope, and very personal in its power. It is radically different from the worldly understanding of kingship: the more reason Jesus slipped away whenever people tried forcefully to declare and make Him king. Although all things are created through Him and for Him, to show the depth of His Father’s love for humanity, Jesus pre-eminently demonstrated His Kingship through His suffering and death, freeing us from sin and death, not by being served. As the faithful witness, He bore witness to the truth – the Father’s love for us. As the face of the Father’s love, Jesus emptied Himself (kenosis) and became a Servant-King, giving up everything so that we may gain everything: He became poor that we may be rich, and He died so that we might live. Christ invites you to share in His kingdom of service to God and humanity, be a witness to God’s truth and love, and not to lord over nor be served by others.

The nature of the Lord’s Kingdom is such that it endures in time, unlike human kingdoms that come and go, terminated by death. It is also universal: wide and strong enough to embrace, heal and bring forgiveness to every human being however they may come to it. Its jurisdiction cannot be measured. Christ’s kingdom is also very personal in that, it is not about castles, knights of armour, and grand military battles. It is about liberating our souls from sin, setting us free to be the kind of person God intends us to be. Jesus offers us the truth about our life, ourselves and our future. This truth will always set us free. This kingdom does not enslave us but sets us free. Its power is not from the world but from the grace and life of the Risen Christ. We are part of this kingdom by our Baptism and made a stronger part of it through Confirmation. We grow in it through Penance and Holy Communion. We serve it through Holy Matrimony and Holy Orders and draw from its resources in illness/sickness through the Anointing of the Sick.

Christ’s Kingdom is a zone of strength, spiritual safety, and moral power from whose resources believers can draw during this life and in which we can live forever in the next. It is not somewhere in outer space: it is available in the Church and every human life can be part of it. Its length is eternal – enduring beyond every human kingdom until the end of time and beyond. Its width is universal; big enough to embrace every human being who ever was, is, and ever will be. Its reach is deep and personal in every human life. You are privileged to be a part of and to share in this Kingdom. If we have been far from Christ, next week, the first Sunday of Advent, is a chance to begin to unite ourselves deeply with Him. His Kingdom of Truth and Grace, are as close as every Church, Sacrament, and Mass. These are the access points into Christ’s Kingdom of saving truth and lasting life. The power and peace of Christ’s Kingdom are here. However, the entry and embrace of this Kingdom is up to us. We are thus called to submit to Christ’s rule in this life by trusting in Him and obeying His word, and then we shall reign with Him forever in heaven. Be a part of this Kingdom!

Congratulations to our dear and fresh Graduates. Ayeekoo! As we thank God for a successful academic journey, may He bless your dreams of graduation.

Dear students, Jesus Christ is the King of the Universe. His dominion is that of Truth, Service and Power. Let us all submit to His rule in this life by trusting in Him and obeying His word so that we can reign with Him forever in heaven. While on vacation, make efforts to deepen your faith and understanding of the Church and Her Doctrines. We pray for God’s protection upon you at home, as you do your attachments and National Service. Please take good care of yourselves and be helpful to your family. Let your presence be felt in your home parishes and offer a helping hand. We love you so much and miss you already! Pax!

Please remember to stay well, healthy and safe. Be not afraid to attend Mass. Observe the safety protocols. Your life is dear to us.

Have a Blessed and Joyful Week.

God bless and keep you safe.

Our Lady of the Holy Rosary, Pray for Us.
